

I strongly request that this vote be delayed until there is some public and congressional discussion about it! The full content of the plan has not even been disclosed! This is hardly democracy at work.